

LEGIN

“LEGIN is a powerful voice of reconciliation for our generation.
RELEVANT. CLEAR. AUTHENTIC.” Danny M.

LEGIN is a church leader, speaker, community advocate, and acclaimed hip-hop and spoken word artist. LEGIN created his name because “LEGIN” is Nigel spelled backwards. This demonstrates that Christ turned his life around. He currently serves at CrossRoads Church in Norfolk, Virginia, where he has preached monthly for nearly eight years.

In 2016, Legin and Pastor Kevin Tremper of CrossRoads formed the Hampton Roads City Collective. Through relationship building, panel discussions and other gatherings, the collective has sought to help faith leaders in the community engage in difficult conversations about race, justice and the Gospel. Additionally, in 2018, Legin helped found the Safe House Project, an organization that works to unite communities across America to end domestic sex trafficking, while empowering survivors with hope, freedom and a future. After starting counseling before the pandemic in 2020 to address wounds left by his father's absence, Legin launched the virtual concert series GOOD ENUF (2021) with new music to inspire people to trust God (Rom. 5:8) and get therapy, using his 501(c)3 to offer mental health resources and funds to his viewers.

As an artist, Legin has released 10 recordings, including 2017's Safe House and 2018's Dark Room EP. His 2020 EP, In This Moment, is a personal and passionate musical response to racial injustice, political divisiveness, and disunity in the country. The project was birthed during a prayer march Legin helped organize and host in Norfolk, following the death of George Floyd. The march drew 5,000 people, including leaders from more than 100 churches and organizations in the community. In 2021, Legin released several new singles including In Awe, and Feelin Blessed as part of his GOOD ENUF virtual concert series with more to come in 2022.

Legin has shared the stage with Lecrae and opened for artists like KB, Social Club Misfits, Aaron Cole, Tedashii, Canon, Da' T.R.U.T.H., Flame and more. He has produced and promoted tours throughout the United States and United Kingdom, and has performed in Kenya and South Africa. Legin lives in Norfolk, VA with his wife and children.

“If my story can help someone understand RECONCILIATION & FORGIVENESS, then I'll tell it in my music and on stage every chance I get.”
